

Singapore imposes ban on imported meat from 5 countries

30 November 2022 | News

The government has temporarily imposed a ban to import meat from Japan, France, USA, Denmark and Hungary.

The government has temporarily imposed a ban to import meat from Japan, France, USA, Denmark and Hungary.

Singapore has imposed a ban on imported meat from five countries, due to the outbreak of Avian Influenza. According to Singapore Food Agency (SFA), Government has temporarily imposed a ban to import meat from Japan, France, USA, Denmark and Hungary.

Poultry and poultry products from Japan's Ibaraki and Hyogo prefectures, France's department of Mayenne, Cote d'Armor, Loiret and Indre, USA's Wright County, Iowa, Lehigh County, Pennsylvania, Lawrence County, Mississippi, Slagelse city in Denmark, Bács-Kiskun and Csongrád-Csanád region in Hungary are banned for temporarily.